THE

SENIOR CLASS OF 1968

PRESENTS THE

EDELIAN

EDWARD DRUMMOND LIBBEY HIGH SCHOOL

TOLEDO, OHIO

The mood of a person can best be defined
As the quality of temper or state of the mind;
A union of the body, the mind and the soul,
So easily shifted, quite hard to control.

The mood here at Libbey has one warm effect,
A combining of loyalty, pride and respect;
The pride of the student who is loyal to all;
With respect for each other, Libbey stands tall.

A preparation to enter life's long weary road,
To conquer each hardship, to carry the load,
The satisfaction of learning, of making new friends
We'll remember and cherish 'till the day that life ends.

Four years of enjoyment, four years of life's best,
That road is awaiting, putting you to the test.
But always remember this short simple rule;
Step forward and say proudly. "Libbey's My School!"

The Many Moods of Libbey

SADNESS . . . . .

Longing and yearning for someone who's left
Like a classmate who's close, or a friend like "Jeff."

SUSPENSE . . . . .

When we awaited results of a difficult test,
Aware that we hadn't really done our best.

GAIETY . . . . .

During Homecoming dance held in the gym,
—Blue and gold streamers—the lights down dim.

REFLECTION . . . . .

While we took time for self-evaluation
And indulged in dreams.

CONFIDENCE . . . . .

What a change from that freshman—doubtful, unsure;
To the confident senior—prepared, secure.

Good Luck, Carol!

Service with a smile!

Carol is a loyal Cowboy fan.

Always willing to help.

The Libbey mood will be one of regret when Mrs. Carol Comstock leaves her duties as Head Clerk-Treasurer in the office of Libbey High School this summer. A product of our own Business Department, she has served Libbey well for sixteen years.

Mrs. Comstock has worked with the principal, the faculty, and the students with efficiency, patience, and consistent good humor. With it all, she has maintained a personal dignity that has earned everyone's respect.

We are sorry to lose her but wish for her a bright future.

Quiz Team Captures Area Championship

Champions next year?

WSPD's Frank Venner presents trophies.

Eileen Wilson, Jerry O'Neal, Myricks McGee, and Mike Pommeranz epitomize the tremendous potential for scholastic achievement at Libbey. The entire student body, faculty, and administration are justly proud of the honor brought to the school and the city by this Libbey Quiz Team.

The Senior Class thanks the team for one more laurel to culminate a year of achievement.

Congratulations to the 1968 "Champs" and to Mrs. Snow and Mrs. Bonser, who gave invaluable assistance and encouragement to the team.

Champions Jerry O'Neil, Eileen Wilson, Myricks McGee, and Mike Pommeranz

Constant innovation and improvement in educational concepts and facilities mark the administration of Mr. Frank Dick, Superintendent of Toledo Public Schools. Since his appointment in 1965, Mr. Dick has initiated the expansion of the vocational education program in all the city high schools and the establishment of the "Lighted Schoolhouse" program. Milestones during his tenure include mergers of Adams Local School District and the Spencer-Sharples District with the Toledo public schools; establishment of a Council of Instruction for purposes of curriculum study and possible change; appointment of a director of urban affairs; and the study of the Middle School concept of organization.

The use of his talents and energies does not stop at the local level. Mr. Dick participates in many state-wide programs and is becoming a well-known name in educational circles.

Toledo can be sure that Mr. Frank Dick will keep the educational institutions of this city "on the move."

Toledo Board of Education: Arthur L. Zeph, Vice Pres.; Richard C. Duffy; Mrs. Maude Shapiro, Pres.; William N. Thomas; Edward S. Foster, Jr.

Mr. James Foltz, former Libbey student leader and football star, this year succeeded Mr. Loy W. Rusie as principal at Libbey High School. His appointment insures the continued high quality of instruction and administration Toledo has learned to expect.

For Mr. Foltz, it has been a year of experimentation and cautious innovation, instituting changes in areas where improvements can be made but being careful to preserve the many fine traditions that make Libbey unique. While Mr. Rusie gave us the familiar slogan, Libbey Likes Loyalty, Mr. Foltz has added a slogan intrinsically his own—Libbey Has PRIDE.

Good things are happening at Libbey, and the 1968 graduate looks forward to ever-increasing pride when he says, "I went to Libbey."

Mr. Foltz, you have our respect and best wishes.

Libbey's Playboy of the year!

Surprise, Mrs. Ross!!!

"Hunt and peck" system?

These smiling people provide our fine lunches.

Mr. and Mrs. Foltz visit with good friends Mr. and Mrs. Lindeman.

Mr. Robertson, Mr. Gable, Miss Bellis, Mr. Peiger and Miss Walvolge check in.

Usually hard at work, our fine custodial staff takes time to pose for the photographer.

OHHHH !!!

Mrs. Tobias shows her nice disposition.

If Mr. Norment is always this pleasant, how can anyone mind being called to his office?

Our new boilers are kept in good working order by the engineers.

It's all over!

No, lady, I'm not donating my hair.

Sorry man, your credit is no good!

Student Council

Each year the Student Council undertakes the responsibility of providing leadership and government for the Libbey student body. This year was no exception. With the capable assistance of Mrs. Dorothy Bonser and Mr. William Kistner, advisors, the Student Council was one of the, if not the, most active and efficient of Libbey organizations.

The Student Council started the year by sponsoring the Magazine Drive. A car-safety check was held in the parking lot, with members of the Council testing cars, and the WOHO "good guys" in attendance with the "Happy Machine."

With the end of football season approaching, the Student Council helped organize the Homecoming activities and make decorations for the annual football banquet.

They again sponsored the very successful mid-term hop.

National Honor Society

No greater honor may be attained by a Libbey student than the privilege of becoming a member of the National Honor Society. Members are chosen on the basis of scholarship, leadership, character, and service.

The society sponsored a program called the "Newlywed Game," with teachers acting as the newlyweds. Proceeds were used for scholarships.

Second semester, National Honor presented a panel of college students to an audience of Libbey students. The panel tried to give information on all phases of college life. In March, the induction program was held. Juniors were elected to the society on the basis of scholastic achievement, and new senior members were selected by vote of the faculty. Freshmen and sophomores of high scholastic standing were honored.

It is traditional that senior members of National Honor be rewarded with seats of honor on the stage at commencement exercises.

Members of Edelian Staff are always at work!

Edelian

This year many changes have been made in the Libbey yearbook, the Edelian. In addition to the obvious addition of a long awaited color picture, a Senior index has been included.

The staff held a bake sale in October and participated in a roast with the Crystal staff. After publication, staff members celebrated with a party.

Under the supervision of Mr. Charles Martin and Mrs. Jean Hunsaker, the staff, composed of seventeen seniors has worked hard since September, making layouts, getting ads, and meeting deadlines in order to present the Edelian to their fellow classmates at the Senior Banquet.

... RECORD LIBBEY MOODS

Crystal staff admires finished product!

Crystal

One of Northwestern Ohio's finest high school papers is the Crystal. Under the expert guidance of Mrs. Nancy Engler, the Crystal staff has put out a paper which makes Libbey prouder with each issue. The staff received a rare honor when Mr. Dick, the Superintendent of Toledo Schools, sent a letter to the staff after the year's second edition, complimenting them on their fine work. And, Libbey has learned to expect fine ratings at the journalism conference at Bowling Green.

Zeta Epsilon Sigma Literary Society

Under the supervision of Mrs. Nancy Engler, the Zets completed a fun-filled and prosperous year.

Again this year, the Zet mascot, Zeke, presided over all football games from his post on the hill. Members entered the flurry of Homecoming activities with their candidate for Queen, Pam Tibbits, who was voted a finalist by the Senior Class. Zets helped promote spirit by selling tags for the basketball games and sold Senior name cards to reimburse their treasury.

A representative of the Toledo Trust Company spoke to the girls at one meeting, giving them tips on job hunting.

They completed the year with the annual Zet banquet and Tri Lit Dance.

Philalethean Literary Society

The Philalethean Literary Society, under the guidance of Mrs. Linda Oechsle, achieved their goal to make this year a very prosperous and successful one.

Activities started with a lunch for members of the Quorum Service Society while they were busy painting the Press Box in the Stadium. Other activities were bake sales, tag sales, the Tri-Lit Roast and decorating the football field for the Homecoming game.

Each Phil entered the Yuletide season with proper spirit as they decorated the cafeteria, gave a Christmas basket to a needy family, and enjoyed a Christmas party held at the home of their advisor.

An induction party for new members and Phil Loyalty Week were highlights of the year. Again, Libbey's annual Sadie Hawkins Dance, sponsored by the Phils, was an outstanding success.

The annual Phil banquet and Tri-Lit Dance ended the year.

Periclean Literary Society

The Periclean Literary Society, under the leadership of their advisor, Miss Katie Peterson, strove to live up to their motto, "Second to None."

Throughout the year Peries participated in many activities. Along with the Zets, Quorum, and Phils, the Peries sponsored a mid-winter dance "Psychedelic Snowfall."

Peries gave a Christmas basket to a needy family, and they again provided teachers with home-baked cherry pies in honor of Washington's birthday.

Dennis Liebech, Vice President; Ken Davis, President; Dave Knuth, Treasurer; Mark Grebeck, Secretary; Bill Washer, Sergeant at Arms.

Quorum Service Society

Quorum is proving to be one of the more active clubs at Libbey. Members of the Quorum were handsome in blue sweater distinctions this year.

A bake sale was held after school in the lobby, to reimburse the treasury.

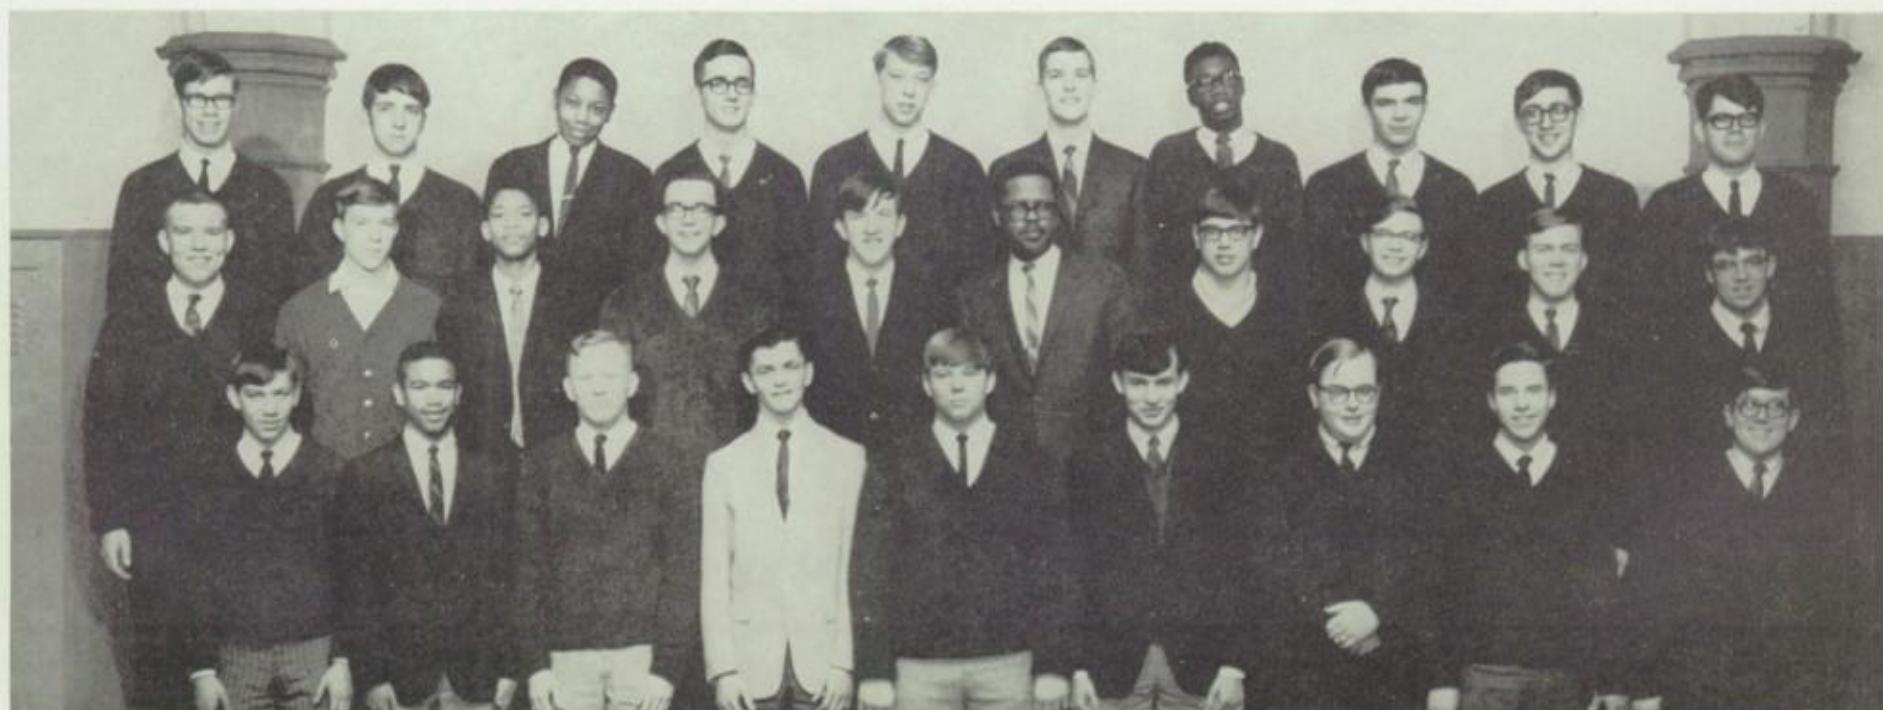

School spirit rode high this year in this club. Members made signs for every football and basketball game—even some for the bowling team! On BIE Day, the Quorum completed their biggest project. They painted the press box in the stadium in blue and gold colors. This task took all day, but the results are appreciated by the whole school.

Several members attended the FTA Northwestern Ohio Convention at Lake High School, participating in discussions and other activities. In January the members took part in a workshop at Devilbiss.

Mr. Foltz was the guest speaker at an open meeting. He talked to the members and prospective new members on the challenges of teaching.

In November members attended a convention at Lake High School, in March they attended the state convention in Columbus and Martha Goldstein will represent Libbey in the state organization as Secretary, an elective post.

With the coming of Christmas, FBLA sent a basket to a needy family and then enjoyed a Christmas party.

LIBBEY MOOD . . .

Libbey's band, under the direction of Mr. David Kohler, has become one of the city's finest. They performed at every football game, with presentations ranging from a cowboy show to the great sound of the Tiajna Brass. This year Libbey's was the first high school to present a concert in the Peristyle of the Art Museum, on the occasion of the 150th Anniversary of Libbey Glass.

Leading the band this year as Drum Major was Charles Ballard, while twirling and dancing were performed by our majorettes, Pat McCourt, Sheila Hymore, and Romona Stubblefield.

High honors were received by soloists James Neal and Connie Hoffheins at Bowling Green. Members of the choir are proud of their new robes. ## Orchestra

Mr. David Kohler is working hard at building an orchestra for Libbey. While the orchestra is small in numbers, it is big in quality. Those who heard the string presentations at the Christmas program and the spring Open House program were impressed with the progress made by this group.

Pep Club

There is a time in every school when spirit may be low. Following the loss of the big game or when your team is stopped at the one-yard line, some students become discouraged. Some students—but not the members of the Pep Club. These girls never lose their pride in Libbey teams. They cheer at all the games, make signs, sell tags, and generally bolster school spirit. Throughout the year, the Pep Club's bulletin board boosted morale.

Boys are learning useful trades in the Libbey vocational program. The shops here provide training in several fields. The foundry is unique among high schools in the city. It provides castings for Board of Education uses, and these boys, under Mr. Kubacki's supervision, turn out many interesting brass decorator pieces.
